Chanticleer News

Happy Thanksgiving!

Our newsletter has changed. The minutes, newsletters, etc. are just posted on our website. You can access it easily on the internet.

Just type in:
www.chanticleerestates.org
and put in our password.

The password is typed in all caps - CEHA (this stands for Chanticleer Estates Homeowners Association).

For those of you who did not attend the homeowners meeting you will want to read the minutes and other information posted there.

Nina is still working on the final revisions of our new covenants and by laws. She will be putting copies in our mail boxes to review very soon. Be on the lookout!

Remember that we meet only four times a year for our regular meetings. They are scheduled for the second Tuesday every quarter.
